

National Domestic Preparedness Coalition

Improvised Explosive Device (IED) Recognition – Package Inspection Course

Emergency Responders and Private Sector Security Professionals will gain a basic knowledge of Explosives, Improvised Explosive Devices and Booby Traps; how to recognize them and what to do when they encounter them. In addition, Responders and Security Professionals are taught how to recognize suspicious packages, package handling and mail handling procedures and what to do when they encounter a suspicious package.

Dave Williams, FBI,
Supervisory Special
Agent Retired

Dates: April 17 & 18, 2012
Time: 0830 - 1700
Where: Morris County Public
Safety Training Academy
500 West Hanover Avenue
Parsippany, NJ 07054

The National Domestic Preparedness Coalition is a 501c (3) nonprofit organization, established to help our Nation's Emergency Responders, from both the public and private sector, to prevent, prepare for and protect their communities from all hazards, including natural disasters and terrorism, by providing the highest quality training and programs.

Mr. Williams supervised and was the principal FBI Laboratory Examiner in the bombing of the World Trade Center, New York; the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City; the bombing of a French owned DC-10, UTA Flight 772 in Chad, Africa, and the accident investigation aboard the USS Iowa. He also participated at the crime scene following the bombing aboard Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland; the UNABOMB investigation and many others.

Preparing for a Secure Tomorrow

For information or Application, please email
Mark Starring at mstarring@ndpci.us or visit www.ndpci.us

Contact information ►►

742 Ten Rod
Exeter Rhode Island, 02822
(401) 294-2300
www.ndpci.us